Studying Hacking, Ethically (and Unethically?)

Featured Discussion Leaders:

Alan Tomkins

Director, UNL Public Policy Center

And Team Members:

Lisa PytlikZillig,

Leen-Kiat Soh, and

Shiyuan Wang

Research Team Also Includes:

Tonya Bernadt, Xi Chen, Michael Hayes, Lee Dee Miller, Kevin
JamesNorth, Rasheed Ali Rajabzadeh, and Ashok Samal

Join us to learn about the collaborative study of online hacking attitudes and behaviors involving researchers from Public Policy Center, Dept. Computer Science & Engineering, and the National Drought Mitigation Center funded by NSF's Safe and Trustworthy Cyberspace program.

The luncheon participants will discuss the logistic and methodological challenges to the hacktivism research that touch on ethical considerations. The team is eager to obtain input and guidance from the experience.
