Join us for a discussion of the fact that President Donald Trump famously declared the press to be an “enemy of the people.” This rankles historians—e.g., Joseph Stalin would similarly tarnish his critics in the press, conflating himself and the state. Tactically, Trump’s declaration has been a smash hit with his backers. It has also thrust the media into a tight corner. We look at how casting the media as an enemy has played out for Trump and the press.

Please, if you’d like a free lunch, RSVP via email at ethics@unl.edu by 1:00 pm, February 5th. Indicate dietary restrictions. Also, feel free to bring a lunch or just enjoy the conversation.
